

NEWS ADVISORY

Westchester Commissioner of Health Dr. Joshua Lipsman to Join White Plains Hospital Center Officials In Observing International Infection Prevention Week

*Major Education Initiative Will Underscore Importance
Of Proper Hand Hygiene By Patients, Visitors
And Hospital Staff*

Who: Westchester County Commissioner of Health Joshua Lipsman, MD, JD, MPH; Jon B. Schandler, President and CEO, White Plains Hospital Center (WPHC); Lawrence Kadish, MD, Executive Vice President, WPHC; Saungi McCalla, MSN, MPH, RN, CIC, Director of Infection Control, WPHC and other Hospital officials

What: Kick-off ceremony for White Plains Hospital Center's observance of International Infection Prevention Week. From October 20-24, the Hospital will mount a comprehensive education program using posters, flyers, video presentations and demonstrations to underscore the importance of proper hand hygiene by patients, visitors and Hospital staff to help prevent the spread of infection.

When: Monday, October 20, 12 Noon

Where: White Plains Hospital Center, Centennial Room,
41 East Post Road, White Plains

Contact: Frank Pagani, Thompson & Bender, (914) 762-1900
Brenda Moynihan, WPHC, (914) 681-1192